A VALUBALE COTTON FARM FOR RENT OR LEASE,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS.—The subscriber wishes to lease for a term of years his plantation near Marlboro, Pitt County.

The farm contains about

of improved land, well adapted to the growth of cotton and corn. The facilities for composting or manuring are greater than ordinary.

Vegetable mould, or peat, well rotted, lies in a branch for near a mile in length on one side of the field, overlying marl of superior richness. This marl contains, by analysis, with other fertilizing constituents, 6 pr. ct. of Coprolyte, or Phosphate of Lime.

There are ample buildings for dwelling and every needful purpose, on the place.

To the farmers of the middle counties, industrious, working, practical men, who wish to repair their fortunes by cotton planting, this place offers rare inducements. To such men, if without capital, I could give aid the first year, by furnishing stock, provisions &c., to be paid for out of the crop, if desired.

As none but industrious, working men can make cotton successfully, none but those who come well recommended as such need apply.

I would particularly call the attention of my customers to the importance of having their

MAKE LIBERAL CASH ADVANCES

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

"And we now tell him, and his friends generally, that if he will promptly take ground for the proposed Constitutional (or Howard) amendment, as the best that can be got for the State, we will support him for re-election, and we shall thus have good feeling and entire harmony in the State. Grieved and indignant as we are at the manner in which Gov. Worth has treated the Union men of the State, we will forget all that, if thereby we can pave the way to the restoration of the Union and secure harmony and good feeling among our people. We make the offer in good faith, and anxiously await a reply."—Standard.

We are not authorized to reply for Governor Worth, but we will say that he is no trimmer, no turn-coat. Neither motives of policy or of fear could drive him to the surrender of principles which he holds to be essential to the maintenance of constitutional liberty and of justice to the States and the people. We know that he is conscientiously and honestly devoted to the Union and the Constitution, and, knowing that President Johnson's policy is founded upon similar views, we believe that he will adhere to the President's position at all hazards.

Mr. Holden thus plainly and emphatically abandons the President and ignores every political principle he has heretofore advocated.—Gov. Worth will not abandon his principles for any office under the State or national governments. If the Howard amendment is constitutionally adopted, and becomes a part of the Constitution, he will quietly submit to it, but, until thus adopted, he will oppose it on principle.

But Mr. Holden betrays his insincerity. It is scarcely a fortnight since he and his correspondents have declared, that if Gov. Worth were re-elected, he would not be permitted to enjoy the office under the Howard amendment. Now he proffers to support Gov. Worth if he will support the Howard amendment, which, according to Mr. Holden, would drive him from the office of Governor! That is "talking sense" with a vengeance.

Mr. Holden will support Gov. Worth, though "grieved and indignant" at his treatment to the Union men of the State. We defy the Standard to give a single instance of unkind or unjust treatment, on the part of Gov. Worth, to any Union man living. It is the arrant, unfounded falsehoods of the "so called Union men," alone, which keeps up the strife in the South. They lie outright who charge upon Governor Worth, or any other sound minded man in the South, injustice, or persecution, or unkindness, to Union men. We have challenged them to the proof of their assertions, time and again, and they have failed utterly to sustain their charges.

But if Mr. Holden can show us, clearly and unmistakably, how the adoption of the Howard amendment can bring reconciliation and peace and harmony to the people of the South and to the Union, we will abandon both Gov. Worth and the President at once, if they will not go with us. But he cannot show it. It is really a Pandora's box, out of which will come evils never yet even dreamed of.

WE ARE requested by the Librarian to say, that the State Library is now in order and open to the public.

The Howard Amendment vs. President Johnson's Policy.

The New York Herald urges the Southern States to adopt the Howard amendment as the best they can get. The Raleigh Standard and the Newbern Times urge the same plea upon the people of North Carolina. The New York Herald is claimed as a new convert to the Howard amendment. It speaks confidently and vauntingly of the certain success of the Howard amendment, whereupon the weak-kneed, timorous conductors of the Raleigh Standard and Newbern Times take up the Howard amendment with more vim and predict its triumphant success.

The truth is, the New York Herald has only come back to the identical position it occupied three months ago. The Standard and Times all along endorsed the Howard amendment, but since the Maine election and the supposed somersault of the Herald, they are more bold in its support.

The Herald, Standard and Times insist that the Howard amendment and the policy of President Johnson are identical. This was the Herald's position as soon as the amendment was passed, and it then urged the President to adopt it as his policy. The overwhelming and prompt rally of the conservative men of the country, in favor of the President and in opposition to the amendment, culminating in the Philadelphia Convention of August 14th., startled the Herald, and it came out violently against the Radicals and in favor of the President. The Maine election, and the passage of the amendment by the Radical majority of the New Jersey Legislature, with perhaps other moving considerations, have driven it back to its old position. The Herald and Standard both assert the exact agreement of the Howard amendment and the President's policy, but neither of them have shown it by any argument worth consideration. The Newbern Times attempts to do that foolish thing and singularly fails.

The proposition of the Reconstruction Committee of Fifteen was far less objectionable than the Howard amendment. Yet it failed to meet the views of the President. The Howard amendment was known to be more so, and hence it was never submitted to him for his approval. The Herald, Standard and Times place out of view entirely the real character of the amendment. They all proceed upon the idea that the disfranchising section of the amendment is the most offensive to the South. The Radicals, who understand the bearing of the amendment upon the organic law and genius of the government, keep their deep and revolutionary designs out of the view of the people, North or South, altogether, and only dwell upon the demagogical features of the amendment. They know that to talk of disfranchising "rebels and traitors," is a sweet sound to the ears of the Northern people.

But we repeat, what we have before said, the disfranchising clause is the least objectionable in the Howard amendment. We would much prefer, however, it the disfranchisement, since the amnesty of the President, could be made to appear right or just at all, that the entire Southern people who sympathized with the war should be disfranchised for a given term, than that ten of them should be, leaving it in the power of Congress to pardon them. Indeed, the disfranchising clause in the amendment could really effect nothing for Radicalism, North or South, if it were just and right to the disfranchised. There are a plenty of men in the South, who never took an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, to fill all the offices in the South well, without electing a single man who sympathises with Radicalism.

But we desire to see the Standard point out the identity between the President's policy and the Howard amendment. We will show, hereafter, the utter unsoundness of the position.

"He knows that, some four months ago, we were prepared to support his (Gov. Worth's) administration if he would pledge himself not to proscribe the Union men of the State in his appointments to office."—Standard.

To our knowledge, Gov. Worth has refused positively to commit himself to the policy or control of any one man, or of any clique or party, but he determined to adhere to his purpose, as far as possible, to treat all the citizens of the State alike, having due regard to the public interest. He has proscribed no man in the State. Every man that he found in office he has permitted to remain for the full term for which he was appointed. If he did not reappoint those whom he found in office, it was because he found as good Union men who were better fitted for the positions, as far as he could learn, than those in office. He could not conscientiously appoint any man a director in a company whose charter required the holding of a certain amount of stock, knowing it at the time, and hence, for that reason, if for no other, many of Mr. Holden's appointees could not be re-appointed. He has eschewed entirely the idea of class in his appointments, and he would appoint no man whom he did not believe was devoted to the Union and the Constitution,—a strictly loyal man. We deny that he has proscribed the Union men of the State in his appointments to office, and we defy Mr. Holden to prove the contrary.

"Gov. Worth knows that, in October last, we were ready to do all we could honorably to prevent division in the Union party of this State."—Standard.

We do not know what Mr. Holden means by this. We know this: That he admitted, in September last, that there was but one party in the State and that the Union party. Gov. Worth never consented to run for Governor to divide the Union party. Gov. Worth consented to run before Mr. Holden was announced as a candidate, because of the assurance he had that the Union men of the State would not vote for Mr. Holden. The result proved that thousands of the Union men would not have voted at all, rather than vote for Mr. Holden. The division of the Union party in North Carolina is chargeable directly upon the course of Mr. Holden, while Provisional Governor and since.

Resources of Western North Carolina.

It was stated by our correspondent from Asheville, whose interesting letter appeared in the Sentinel a few days since, that Prof. Kerr, the State Geologist, is at present engaged in making a tour of exploration through the mountain Counties. We are pleased to learn this fact. It so happened that, owing to circumstances and the pressure of what were regarded as more imperative duties, the former State Geologist, Dr. Emmons, had it in his power to devote but comparatively little time to the extreme Western section of the State.—Knowing the magnificent natural resources of that region, and having full confidence in the attainments of Prof. Kerr, we look for an intelligent and striking report of his operations.

The mineral wealth, agricultural fertility, manufacturing capabilities, adaptation to sheep-husbandry, and general facilities for stock-raising, of the Western Counties of North Carolina, need only to be properly presented to the world, under the authentic sanction of a scientific report, to induce to that part of the State the immigration of capital and of skilled and intelligent labor. Such accessions would secure the completion of the Western extension, and the construction of other important schemes of internal improvement, far more speedily than, in our present impoverished condition or with the prospects before us, we can hope to accomplish of ourselves.

Under a restored, Constitutional Union, with the National troubles thereby quieted and composed, we shall yet see Western North Carolina the centre of a trade, an enterprize and a prosperity that will command the attention of the world. And with its magnificent scenery, its life-giving fountains and breezes, it will become the resort of the tourist, and of thousands in search of pleasure and of health.

"The Sentinel admits that the Constitutional amendment is the result of the deliberations of the moderate portion of the Union party. In the name of Heaven, does that paper expect to see our troubles settled in opposition to the views of the moderate Republicans? It may be thankful if it can get them settled in accordance with their views, and thus escape the radicalism which it seems so much to deprecate."—Standard.

The Standard misrepresents us. We never said that the Howard amendment was the result of the deliberations of the moderate portion of the Union party. We never speak of the Radical party as the Union party. If there be a disunion party in this Republic, the Radical party is that party. We said that the Howard amendment might be regarded as embodying the sentiments of the moderate portion of the Radical party. The Republican party is divided between the Radicals and conservative Republicans. We regard President Johnson and the Republicans who co-operate with him as conservative Republicans. He is, at present, the leader of the National Union party, the only real Union party in the country.

The Raleigh Sentinel, of Saturday, has two new Petersburg advertisements to one Raleigh advertisement.—Petersburg Index.

We had not observed the above fact. The Sentinel has no cause to complain of its Raleigh patronage, and we highly appreciate it. Equally do we appreciate the favors of our Petersburg friends. The relations of Petersburg and North Carolina have always been of the kindest character. Indeed, we claim Petersburg and Norfolk as North Carolina towns. The Petersburg merchants show their business tact by advertising in the Sentinel. Nor are our North Carolina advertisers unmindful of the Petersburg press

Public Meeting at Auburn.

On Tuesday, the 18th. inst., the people of St. Mary's District, (Wake Co.) assembled, for the purpose of expressing their views in regard to the condition of the Country.

On motion, Wm. R. Poole was called to the Chair, and Haywood Griffis appointed to act as Secretary.

It was further moved that a Committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions for the meeting. The Chairman then appointed Col. G. H. Faribault, J. H. Pool and Orrin A. Smith.

During the absence of the Committee, frequent calls were made for, Col. Russ, Ex-Gov. Manly and others, who entertained the crowd in short but very appropriate and well-timed speeches.

The Committee then returned and reported, through their Chairman, Col. G. H. Faribault, the following:

Resolved, That we are opposed to being taxed by the next General Assembly of North Carolina, for any other purpose, than to defray the necessary current expenses of the State, and to re-open the Common Schools for white children.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the exchange of Rail-Road stock, for the old North Carolina State Bonds, and that the public Treasurer is hereby requested not to transfer any of them until after the Legislature meets in November next.

Resolved, That we will vote for no man for Governor or the Legislature, who is opposed to the views expressed in the first and second resolutions.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the policy, advocated by President Johnson, and utterly opposed to Radicalism, either in the North or South.

Resolved, That we respectfully recommend, as persons fit to represent us in our next General Assembly, Moses A. Bledsoe, for the Senate; and J. P. H. Russ, S. H. Rogers, and G. W. Crockett, for the Commons.

Resolved, That the Chairman of the meeting be requested to appoint ten delegates to represent St. Mary's District in the County Convention, to be held in Raleigh, on Saturday, the 22nd inst.

In accordance with the resolution, the Chairman appointed the following delegates: Col. G. H. Faribault, J. H. Poole, Dr. L. C. Manly, O. A. Smith, Hardy Poole, Jr., Wm. Penny, Wm. Powell, Berry Bagwell, Wm. Sturdivant and Oswell A. Smith.

On motion, the Chairman and Secretary were added to the list.

Further moved, that the Raleigh papers be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

WM. R. POOLE, Chairman.
HAYWOOD GRIFFIS, Secretary.

The Jacobin journals have a good deal to say about the Maine election—but never a word about the many administration gains in California. They have not heard the news.

Abuse, Blasphemy, and Rant of Leading Radicals.

THREATS OF A CIVIL WAR.

Governor Yates, of Illinois, in his speech at the late Radical Convention in Philadelphia, said:

"He would apply to President Johnson the language of an amiable Illinois Judge to a man who had been convicted before him of murder: "Mr. Smith, it is my duty to pronounce sentence against you. It is a painful duty, but the law requires me to fix some time when you shall be hanged. Now, Mr. Smith, I want to know when it will suit you to be hanged?"—Illinois, he said, had raised two hundred and fifty thousand troops to battle in the cause of the country, and was now prepared to raise five hundred thousand more to finish the same good work."

In his speech as President of the late Republican State Convention at Syracuse, Lyman Tremain, assuming the pretext for a renewal of civil war, said:

"At the first tap of the drum, an army, composed of veteran troops capable of overcoming all opposition, would come to the rescue, and, adopting the President's opinion that traitors must be punished, soldiers would proceed to punish them. And I assume further that this time it would be effectually done,—done without the intervention of President or Congress, court, jury or military commission."

In a recent letter to the Anti-slavery Society, Wendell Phillips, who is the engineer of the Radical engine, thus urged the election of men to the Fortieth Congress who are equal to the madness of attempting the deposition of the President:

"Our duty is to put there (in Congress) men who will at every hazard save the nation, remembering that they stand where the Long Parliament stood in 1649; and though the block and axe in front of the palace may be no fitting measures now, they are bound to find and to use some measures fit and efficient to secure their purpose,—the deposition of the perjured and usurping traitor."

Senator Wilson at Philadelphia played upon the passions of the crowd after this fashion:

"Now, according to the acts of Andrew Johnson, these things were all true, and what ought they to do with him? (A voice—"Hang him with Jeff. Davis.") What are you going to do with him? (A voice—"Hang him.")

Jack Hamilton, of Texas, who is salaried from a fund in the hands of the Radical leaders at Washington, said in his address before the Loyal League at Philadelphia:

"Prepare your heart and your arms, too, perhaps, for another conflict." (Cries of "We are ready.")

Again, on being received at Trenton on Monday, with Parson Brownlow, he said:

"The great question upon which he (President Johnson) claims your support is that he wants to restore the Union. I cannot respond to the sentiment so often expressed 'The Union as it was and the Constitution as it is.' I want the Union as it wasn't and the Constitution as it is not."

The following is an extract from the prayer made by the (so-called) clergyman who opened the Philadelphia Radical Convention:

"Oh, grant that we may do right this time, though the heavens fall! (Shouts of "Amen! amen!") Hear us, we beseech Thee, for our nation at large. Deliver us from the rule of bad men, especially him through satanic agency has been raised to authority over us, and who, abusing that authority, is not only endangering the life of our republic but our personal liberty. Great God, interpose, and in making bare Thine arm for vengeance, save us from his infamous and ruinous policy and from the bad counsels of bad men that surround him. (Shouts of "Amen! amen!") And we beseech Thee to discover to the American people the base hypocrisy of that party that seeks to sustain him. Oh, send a spirit from Thy throne to arouse the American people to action in this tremendous hour." (Renewed cries of "Amen! amen!")

Senator Chandler, of Michigan, who declared in the spring of 1861 that the Union wouldn't be worth a rush without a little blood-letting, said in a speech at the late Philadelphia Convention:

"The obstacle that is now in the way the people will remove in a very short time. Who is Andrew Johnson, and what is Andrew Johnson's policy? Andrew Johnson has no more right to a policy than my horse has. * * * William H. Seward is to-day a traitor at heart to the government of the United States. Andrew Johnson once said that treason was a crime, and that traitors should be punished, and treason made odious. If Andrew Johnson does not stop about now, he will ascertain that treason is a crime, and that traitors shall be punished, and treason made odious.'

Brownlow is now travelling the country as a firebrand to stir up the passions of the people. Before leaving home for the Philadelphia Radical Convention he said, speaking of the prospects of another civil war:

"The loyal masses, who constitute an overwhelming majority of the people of this great nation, intend it shall be no child's play. They will, as they ought to do, make the entire Southern Confederacy as God found the earth when he commenced the work of creation, "without form and void." They will not and ought not to leave a rebel fence-rail, outhouse, or dwelling in the eleven seceded States. And as for the rebel population, let them be exterminated. And when the war is wound up, which should be done rapidly and with swift destruction—let the land be re-surveyed and sold out to pay the expenses of the war, and settled only by people who will respect the Stars and Stripes."

Again, at the Philadelphia Convention, he reiterated this sentiment in returning to the subject, as follows:

"I want to have something to say about the division of your forces the next time. I would divide your army into three grand divisions.—Let the first go armed and equipped as the laws of the army require, with small arms and artillery. Let them be the largest division, and let them do the killing. Let the second division be armed with pine torches and spirits of turpentine, and let them do the burning. Let the third and last division be armed with surveyors' compasses and chains, and we will survey out the land and settle it. We will first sell it out, to pay the expenses of the war with the proceeds, and then settle it with men who will honor this glorious banner. (Great applause.) These are my sentiments."

Butler, in his speech at Gloucester, Mass., just before going on to the Philadelphia Radical Convention, said:

"He contended that by their rebellion they had forfeited their property, their rights, and their lives, if rebels were hanged, which, unfortunately, he said, they were not. If this state of things cannot be altered, the General continued, we will march once more, and woe to him who opposes us!"

Again Butler said:

"If I am asked how long I would keep these men out of the Union, I say, keep them out until the heavens melt with fervent heat; and if it should not come in this generation, we will swear our sons to keep them out."

The following curse upon the President of the United States occupies a conspicuous place in the Philadelphia Press:

"May my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth, should I ever cease, day or night, to call upon God to curse all such tyrants, and sweep them away as with a pestilence, that their wives may become widows, and their children orphans, and that their names may become a hissing, a by-word and a reproach, throughout all generations."

L. O. SMITH.

CHARLOTTE, Mich., Sept. 3, 1866.

"Proscription for Opinion's Sake."

The Raleigh Standard has a long leader with the above heading, in which a feeble and untruthful effort is made to prejudice the people against Gov. Worth, for the changes that several Railroad Companies have thought proper to make in their officers. But as the Standard's article has in the main been refuted by the Sentinel, in a very able reply which we copy, we shall notice only the tirade against the Western N. C. Road and Gov. Worth. The Standard says: "And his last act has been to eject Todd R. Caldwell, Esq., from the office of President of the Western Railroad, and put Col. Tate in his place."

Now, does the Standard not know, that the "ejection of Mr. Caldwell" was the act of the Directors, and not done by Gov. Worth. And why? Because they considered Col. Tate, we suppose, better qualified to manage the affairs of the Road, which, under the control of Mr. Caldwells had become truly desperate. When the annual meeting of stockholders was held at Morganton, the Road was in extremis! Not a dollar was in the Treasury—for all had been drawn by Mr. Caldwell to pay his salary of $2,500; with debts due the employees on the road for services and labor and no money to pay them, and they stopped work; not a morsel of provisions and not a quart of oil to run the train from Salisbury! With such management, how could Mr. Caldwell expect to be re-chosen President! This was the condition of the affairs of the Road, and worse, when Col. Tate took office. The fact is, but for the pecuniary assistance rendered the Road by Col. Tate, who was a Director, and R. F. Simonton, Esq., Treasurer, in lending the Road $15,000, $5,000 of which was in specie, the trains would have ceased to run long before the annual meeting. When Mr. Caldwell took office, he voted to raise his own salary to a large sum, with the aid of the Directors appointed for the State by Gov. Holden, and to increase the salaries of the other officers, notwithstanding the crippled condition of the Road and its losses by the war.—Gov. Holden's State Proxy, W. H. Howerton, instead of voting one-third of the represented stock, 2,996 votes, as the Charter provides, cast 21,000 votes, and carried everything.—Statesville American.

A PRAYER FOR PARDON.—As the President was passing to the stairs of Willard's Hotel, after speaking, during his recent visit to Louisville, thirty-nine little maidens scattered flowers under his feet as he passed, and when he arrived at the end of their line, having stopped occasionally to kiss one of their sweet, innocent faces, one of them handed him the following beautiful petition praying for the release from prison of Mr. Davis, which the President very kindly received, promising to read it at his first leisure moment and give it his consideration:

To His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States of America:

Honored Sir—The undersigned, little girls of the city of Louisville and of the State of Kentucky, taught by our mothers to venerate you as the nation's head and the people's friend, moved by sympathy for one who once stood your peer in the councils of the nation, do most respectfully present this prayer in his behalf, and in behalf of an anguished mother and grief-stricken little ones—

That you release from prison, on parole or otherwise, as may seem best to you, Jefferson Davis, late President of the "so-called Confederate States of America." If our Chief Magistrate shall find it consistent with his sense of duty to the nation to grant our prayer, millions of little ones shall rise up to call him blessed.

LOUISVILLE, September 11, 1866.

A Union meeting in Wilkes adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, further, That we earnestly advise that, by bounties, the colored people be induced to emigrate to their father-land, Africa, and that the United States government tender to the American Colonization Society idle war vessels to be used in their transportation to Liberia; and that the Secretary of this meeting communicate a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of the Colonization Society, with a request that it be laid before Congress."

We think it would be a good plan for everybody to join with the Wilkes County people in this movement, and aid the colored people to emigrate to a country where they can make their own laws and be governed by men of their own color. Or, if they do not want to go to Liberia, assist them to move North where they are led to believe their best friends reside. All colored people who consider Yankees better friends to them than Southern men, ought to go North to live, and it will be good policy for us to aid them to go.

The American Colonization Society have recently had applications from 600 colored persons to aid them in their purpose to emigrate to Liberia.—Charlotte Democrat.

Vermont Election.

The Radicals are quoting and cheering Vermont in their usual extravagant style. But what are the facts? Here is the vote:

	1866.	1865.
Dillingham	36,671	27,596
Davenport	16,442	8,857
Republican majority last year		18,829
Republican majority this year		10,229
Democratic gain		8,500

One County, Grand Isle, is not reported. Last year it gave 160 majority for Dillingham.

The Conservative gain is EIGHT THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED VOTES! Unless the Radicals look sharply the State will, at another trial, produce something better than "wool."—Boston Post.

THE CHOLERA IN RICHMOND.—The Richmond Times, of Thursday last, says:

"The frightful pestilence which is now epidemic in this city has produced no panic among our citizens, and for that reason it has been stripped of half its terrors. Men pursue their ordinary avocations, feeling assured that by prudence in eating and drinking, and by ordinary cleanliness, the chances of escape are as a thousand to one in their favor."

THE SOUTHERN ORPHANS' RELIEF FAIR.—The Baltimore Gazette of Saturday says: "The fair for the relief of the Southern orphans has thus far been more successful than was anticipated on its opening. The donations have been larger, while the sale of the articles has inspired a hope that a considerable amount will be realized towards the object sought to be accomplished. The attendance Friday was very large and last night the hall was thronged. The ladies are determined to sustain the fair until Monday, on the evening of which day it will close."

The President announced the death of Gov. Morehead in appropriate remarks, and offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Board have received, with sensations of profound sorrow, the announcement of the recent death of Hon. JOHN M. MOREHEAD, a member of this Board.

That the Board cannot forbear to express the deep sense of loss sustained by its members in this melancholy event, and desire hereby to record their high appreciation of the valuable and faithful service and sympathy so long extended by the deceased to the interests of this company, as well as of the other great public improvements to which he devoted so large a portion of his valuable life.

That the Board hereby desire to testify their sincere sympathy with those of his family and fellow citizens, who are more immediately afflicted by his untimely death.

The following resolution was offered by Maj. Wm. T. Sutherlin, prefacing it with a few remarks on the distinguished services and eminent talents of the deceased, after which the resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That as a testimonial of our high appreciation of the exalted talents and eminent services of the Hon. JOHN M. MOREHEAD, deceased, of North Carolina, in the construction of many of the most important Railroads in his own State, but especially for the liberal views and unceasing efforts, for the past fifteen years, to obtain the charter from the Legislature of his native State, for the construction of this Road, the depot nearest Greensboro, N. C. and known as "Sepinaw" shall hereafter be known and designated by this Company as "Morehead depot."

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing be furnished to the family of the deceased, and also to the newspapers of his State for publication.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—M. D. L. Moody offers a valuable Hotel property in Charlotte for rent.

WE REGRET to learn, that our friend, Judge Merrimon, was prevented from attending Nash Court in the early part of this week, by indisposition. Since Edgecombe Court, he has been stopping at the Exchange Hotel, and has been compelled to resort to medicine to check an attack of intermittent fever. He was sufficiently recovered, however, to leave for Nash Court this morning.

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT.—The stores of our Jewish fellow-citizens are again closed to-day, in commemoration of the annual day of Atonement, which commenced last evening and closes at 6 o'clock this afternoon. It is a period of solemn and rigid observance by the Jews,—involving abstinence from food or drink for full twenty-four hours.

HIS NAME.—We learn by a note from an estimable and accomplished young lady of this City, who has been assiduous in her attention to the graves of our gallant dead, that she has at last ascertained the name of the Confederate soldier who was hung by a detachment of Kilpatrick's cavalry, on their entrance into Raleigh on the morning of April 13th. 1865.—His name was 1st. Lieut. WALSH, 11th. Texas Cavalry. The Texas papers, with which we exchange, will please copy this notice, as it may, in that way, meet the eyes of the unfortunate young man's relatives.

STOCKHOLDERS OF THE RALEIGH BAPTIST FEMALE SEMINARY.—A meeting of the Stockholders of the "Raleigh Baptist Female Seminary" will be held in the basement of the Baptist Church, in Raleigh, on Tuesday, the 25th. of Sept., at 10 o'clock, A. M. A large attendance is requested.

THE LADIES' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—We are requested to state, on behalf of this Association, that it is their intention to hold a large and attractive Fair in this City, in the latter part of the Fall or the early part of Winter, for the purpose of carrying out their laudable design. If the scheme is as successful as they confidently anticipate, the amount realized will probably enable them to perfect and consummate their arrangements for the proposed cemetery for the numerous Confederate dead who are interred at various points in and around the City.

The Ladies ask co-operation and assistance from their fair sisters, as well as the people generally, throughout the State. They solicit contributions of fancy work, or whatever else may be appropriate to the occasion. Donations may be forwarded to Mrs. H. S. Smith, President of the Auxiliary Sewing Society, and they will be gratefully received and publicly acknowledged. Any articles may be forwarded by Express.

The State papers, generally, which sympathize with the objects of the Association, will confer a favor upon the ladies by giving currency, through their columns, to this announcement.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, Sept. 17th, 18th, 1866.—T. L. Clingman, Ashville; Jno. Endy, A. G. Brenizer, Greensboro'; J. S. Vincent, Alamance; P. T. Henry, Bertie; W. S. Spraiks, Petersburg; H. H. Simms, Harris Tyler and daughter, N. C; Geo. H. Haigh, A. A. McArthur, M. Faulk, Isaac Hollinsworth, D. Cartwell, S. Sheetz, J. J. Giltshurst, Jas. Harris, Archibald McFadgin, Sam. Parks, Fayetteville; J. S. Lee and lady, Thomasville; W. J. Hawkins, Warren; W. Matthis, Clinton; J. H. Watson, Chapel Hill; D. A. Jenkins, Gaston.

THE FREEDMEN.—A reliable correspondent, writing us from the County of Randolph, gives a gloomy picture of the conduct of the Freedmen in that section. He says that it has become truly alarming for pilfering and more serious outrages. He says:

"I am fully of the opinion that there are white people among us who are to blame in part for the bad conduct of the freedmen, for there is a shop, not far from this place, where whiskey is kept for sale, and a certain class of white men and negroes drink and play cards and marbles together in one general jollification. Besides, we have with us several of the Radical breed of dogs who teach the ignorant blacks that negroes ought to have and are entitled to the same rights and privileges, in both Church and State, as the whites."

GRANVILLE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—We have heretofore announced that this association will hold its annual fair at Henderson, on the 17th., 18th. and 19th of October. The following correspondence, copied from the Field and Fireside, announces that W. W. Jones, Esq., of Chapel Hill, will deliver the address on the occasion:

HENDERSON, N. C., Aug. 25th, 1866.

Dear Sir:—We the undersigned committee appointed to solicit the services of a suitable person to deliver the annual address before the Granville County Agricultural Society, on the 18th of October next, respectfully request that you will accede to our wishes and the desire of the society in that capacity at the time and place above designated.

Yours, Very Respectfully,
A. J. ROGERS,
S. D. YOUNG, } Committee.
A. B. ANDREWS,

To W. W. JONES, Esq., Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

CHAPEL HILL, Aug. 30, 1866.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to acknowledge your invitation of the 25th, and, if no unforeseen event happens to detain me, will take pleasure in acceding to your kind solicitation at the time and place specified.

Respectfully, your obd't serv't,
W. W. JONES.

To Major A. J. Rogers, Doctor S. D. Young, Capt. A. B. Andrews, Committee, Henderson, N. C.

GENERAL NEWS.

The President and his friends are showing no signs of intimidation. His own speeches are as bold and as confident as ever. The New York Herald's defection is the chief adverse sign,—but people are suspecting that, after all, is only a matter of money,—some fifty or a hundred thousand dollars out of the pocket of the Radicals, and into the pocket of James G. The Republican gain in Maine, which was the sign under which Bennett surrendered, turns out to be less than the Republican loss in Vermont,—not to speak of the indications favorable to the Administration in various local elections.

The New York Express asks the Radicals with what grace or consistency they can complain of the alleged impossibility of free speech anywhere in the so-called "un-reconstructed States," when the President of the United States is actually mobbed and denied a hearing, as at Indianoplis and in other such localities.

The first victory of the political contest for the whole Union has been gained in Illinois. An election for municipal officers in the city of Alton—heretofore a stronghold of radicalism—took place on Tuesday last. Political lines were clearly drawn, the friends of the government policy of reunion arraying themselves on one side and the radical advocates of disunion on the other. The disunionists were completely "routed and driven from the field."

A disloyal Radical sheet in Indianapolis, shortly before the arrival of President Johnson in that city, intimated that it would bear "with resignation" any "dispensation of Providence" that would remove President Johnson. These, says the Albany Argus, are the men that howl about the New Orleans riot. They shoot white men in cold blood at Indianapolis, and invite the murderers to assassinate the President!

A telegram from Louisville, (Ky.,) informs us that General L. H. Rousseau, who caned Grinnell and then resigned his seat in Congress, has been re-elected without opposition to his seat. This is certainly an emphatic approval. It shows very clearly that manhood is still respected in that State, as in other Southern States, and that the people do not condemn him who resents a ruthless insult.

A company of English capitalists, with a capital of $2,000,000, are about to start an enormous cotton factory establishment for supplying European trade at Charleston, S. C. They design this to eclipse all others throughout the entire sea coast. They are backed by the wealthiest firms in England and France.

Exactly seventeen years elapsed from the appearance of the first Asiatic cholera in the year 1832 until its re-appearance in 1849, and the same number of years have passed since 1849 until the visitation in the present year, giving an interval of seventeen years between each occasion.

There is a large and luxuriant field of cotton inside the city limits of Petersburg, which, says the Express, is on Halifax street, and is cultivated by Mr. Thomas Kirkham, who expects to raise about eight bales of the valuable staple.

We tremble for the husbands of fashionable wives next summer. Ristori has just made her appearance in New York with 150 trunks! Of course, shoddy and petroleum are not going to be outdone by an opera singer.

A young Louisville clerk induced a respectable Hoosier girl to run away from her home and go over to Louisville, where he promised to marry her. He kept her at a boarding-house two or three days, and made dishonorable proposals to her. She got him into the parlor, locked the door, and cowhided him within an inch of his life, whereat the people said good for the Hoosier girl.

A Radical paper in Michigan calls Dr. B. F. Butler "the Hero of New Orleans." It must be a misprint for Nero.

General Stuart's brother is in London, trying to raise by subscription a fund of $50,000 for Washington College, in Virginia.

Rev. Mr. Law, a Methodist Clergyman, died in the pulpit while preaching at Mosherville, Mo., on the evening of the 10th instant.

Base-ball is the present "rage" all over the country. A correspondent of the Cincinnati Review says:

"I am connected with a "Publishing House," and am traveling most of my time. I scarcely visit a town in which there is not a base-ball club."

The New York Herald is said to be a money-making institution. Query: How much did Bennett receive for turning over to the Radicals?

The Republican majority at San Francisco, at the recent election, is 17,000. In 1864 it was 42,000.

Fifty thousand copies of E. A. Pollard's "Lost Cause" are said to have been sold within one month after publication.

General Hardee, in New York, has negotiated, on very liberal terms, a loan for the Selma and Meridian railroad.

A Paris date says that Gen. Toombs, of Georgia, has left that city for Switzerland, for the benefit of his health.

A witty Congressman who had never been able to get the floor, remarked to a friend: "I have been in Washington two years, and have caught about everything but the Speaker's eye."

The Atlantic Cable is making $10,000 a day.

Bismark handles his cards queerly; he plays the deuce with a king.

Wm. Gilmore Simms is preparing a "History of South Carolina for Schools."

Mr. Bancroft is about to publish the last volume of his History of the United States.

General Sherman has left Denver with Governor Cummings, to visit Southern posts.

Mr. Edmund Quincy is at work on a biography of his father, the late Josiah Quincy.

The New York News sold for $100,000.

Since the war, house rents in Mobile have advanced 400 per cent.

Mrs. Abraham Lincoln proposes to pass the winter at the Metropolitan Hotel in New York.

A man in South Carolina sends a boy thirty miles on horseback every day to get his daily paper.

A private letter of Alexander H. Stephens, dated at Crawfordville, Ga., August 27, says: "God, in His mercy and wisdom, only knows what is to be the future of this country. The destiny of States, as well as of indivduals, is in His hands. All that we poor mortals can do is to discharge our duty as well as we can, from the light before us, and then bow submissively to His will."

The campaign in Ohio is growing very warm. The Democrats and Johnson men are making a resolute effort to elect George H. Pendleton to Congress. The Republicans, to catch the Fenian vote, have nominated Senator James H. Fitzgerald to fill a vacany in the State Legislature. The Democrats and Conservatives work together harmoniously.

Our Wednesday Morning Dispatches.

The Great National Union Demonstration in New York,—The Fenians.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18, P. M.

The great public demonstration, last evening, in support of the President's policy, was attended by nearly one hundred thousand persons. Gen. Dix, R. H. Pruyn, Hoffman, Senator McDougal and others spoke.

It is rumored that three hundred Fenians purpose leaving Boston to-morrow for a raid on some Canada banks. President Roberts is taking measures to stop the expedition.

Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18, P. M.

The Grand Lodge of the United States, I. O. O. F., in session to-day, elected the following officers for the ensuing term of two years: James P. Sanders, of New York, M. W. Grand Sire; Edward D. Farnsworth, of Tenn., R. W. Deputy Grand Sire; Jas. M. Ridgley, of Maryland, R. W. Grand Secretary; Joshua Vansant, of Maryland, R. W. Grand Treasurer. The attendance is large; nearly every State in the Union and Canada and the British Provinces being represented.

U. S. Mint at Philadelphia,—The New Jersey Legislature.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept 18, P. M.

Ex-Governor Pollock, director of the United States Mint, has resigned, not approving the President's policy. William Millward had previously been appointed by the President to the position.

Alexander Cattell, for U. S. Senator, in New Jersey, is receiving the votes of the Republicans in each House, the Democrats refusing to vote. They presented a protest declaring the new law for the election of United States Senators unconstitutional, and also there was no vacancy.

They also condemn the United States Senate in severe terms for depriving Mr. Stockton of his vote, while being permitted to retain his seat. The Legislature will meet in joint Convention to-morrow.

The Cleveland Convention.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 19.

The great Convention adjourned last night. Gen. Gordon Granger was President.

Resolutions were adopted by acclamation, endorsing the Philadelphia Convention of Aug. 14th, and declaring that the object of the soldiers, in taking up arms to suppress the rebellion, was to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union with all its dignity and equality, and the rights of the several States unimpaired, and not in any spirit of oppression or for any purpose of conquest or subjugation. They further declare that whenever there shall be any armed resistance to the lawfully constituted authorities of our National Union, either in the North or South, East or West, they will take up arms to maintain that Union.

A dispatch from Memphis, signed by Gen. Forrest and other Confederate officers, was read, expressing their sympathy with the purposes of the Convention, declaring that the Confederate soldiers are entirely willing to leave the determination of their rights, as citizens of the States and of the United States, to the soldiers of the Union, and pledging, on their part, security of life, person and property, and freedom of speech and opinion to all. A suitable answer was returned.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECHES—TWO GREAT POINTS.—There are two vital matters upon which the President has never failed in any of his numerous speeches to touch with great impressiveness, and the vast importance of which will not be denied even by those who are most acrid in their criticism upon the style and temper of those speeches. Be his remarks long or short, leisurely or hasty—be they made at a dinner-table, upon a public platform, from a hotel balcony or from the window of a railroad car—he invariably urges upon his hearers the importance of adhering to the Constitution in all their political actions. As he said at St. Louis, he regards himself as placed on the ramparts of the Constitution to sound the alarm upon the approach of danger, and to warn the people whenever the citadel of liberty is in any way imperiled. Then and there, as at other times and places, he spoke with great earnestness upon this subject, urging the people to "cling to the Constitution in this great struggle for freedom and for its preservation, as the shipwrecked mariner clings to the mast when the midnight tempest closes around him."—New York Times.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by

L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters;

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegeo Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va. Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the service of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON,
